

Catarina Isabel Clímaco Monteiro d'Oliveira

Born 3 October 1973

Academic Qualifications

Graduated in Company Organisation and Management from ISCTE – IUL.

She also holds an MBA awarded by the Open University and attended the Advanced Management Program run by the Catholic University of Portugal and Kellogg University.

Professional Career

Began her professional career in 1996 as an auditor at Ernst & Young specialising in the financial and IT systems sectors.

In 2001, became a Financial Controller at Novabase Serviços, SA.

In 2002, she joined the Jerónimo Martins retail group as an internal auditor of the IT systems. In 2008, became Manager of the Internal Audit Department with responsibility for group companies in Portugal and Poland.

In 2013, she took up the position of IT Systems Department Manager for Jerónimo Martins group companies in Poland and serving on the respective Executive Board.

In 2017, she established the Data Protection Department before accumulating this role with leading the Risk Management Department in 2018 with responsibility for Jerónimo Martins group companies across their different geographies.